

Supplement to 2020 Annual Report September 1, 2021

To provide more current financial information to our Shareholders and Employees, management is submitting the Company's unaudited summary financial operating information for the first six months of 2021 and comparable figures for the same period in 2020.

During the first six months of 2021, U.S. recovered paper prices reached some of the highest pricing points in history. This is largely due to global demand and the decrease in both newspaper production and lack of sorted office paper ("SOP"). Mills that consume SOP turned to lower grades of wastepaper which are the grades the Company utilizes. This shortage caused prices to increase in five of the six months. In turn the Company announced two price increases during the period and a third was announced in early July. The lack of paper, and the across the board increases of other raw material costs, resulted in the inability to fill orders and left the Company with a significantly large backorder position along with a six month loss.

Net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2021 were $4,900,757, compared to $3,799,328 for 2020, an increase of $1,101,429. Net loss for the three months ended June 30, 2021 was $(71,441), or $(0.20) per share, compared to net income of $775,620, or $2.15 per share, for the year earlier period.

Net sales for the six months ended June 30, 2021 were $9,375,504, compared to $8,807,795 for 2020, an increase of $567,709. Net loss for the six months ended June 30, 2021 was $(286,721), or $(0.79) per share, versus net income of $922,886, or $2.56 per share, in 2020.

Unaudited comparative summarized operational information for the periods ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 are as follows:

*On April 21, 2020, the Company entered into a term note agreement as part of the United States Small Business Administration's (the "SBA") Paycheck Protection Program. The funds are to be used to retain employees, as well as for rent and utilities. The loan is for a principal sum of approximately $1.6 million, and bears interest at a rate of 1% per annum payable over a five-year period after a six-month interest and principal deferral period. The SBA loan may be forgiven if certain criteria are met. Beginning on the date of the loan through the six-month anniversary of the loan, interest on the principal balance will accrue, but no payments of interest will be due. On the sixth month anniversary of the loan, all principal that is not otherwise forgiven will convert to an amortizing term loan. In June 2020, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) issued Technical Question and Answer (TQA) No. 3200.18, Borrower Accounting for a Forgivable Loan Received under the Small Business Administration Paycheck Protection Program. The TQA was prepared after consultation with the staff of the FASB and the Securities and Exchange Commission. Pursuant to TQA 3200.18, the Company has elected to treat the SBA Paycheck Protection Program funds as a government grant since the Company 1) expects to meet the PPP's eligibility criteria, and 2) considers the substance of the transaction a grant expected to be forgiven. The government assistance is recognized as income when there is reasonable assurance that a) any conditions tied to the assistance are satisfied, and b) the Company will receive the assistance. The Company currently is in the process of submitting for forgiveness, however, based upon the Company achieving the requisite expenditure and other requirements, management believes the PPP funds of approximately $1.6 million will be forgiven. As a result, the Company recorded $1.6 million of forgiveness income as a component of other income for the year ended December 31, 2020. The Company has been notified that PNC has received the loan forgiveness payment equal to $1,547,268.04 on the PPP Loan 1886 from the SBA.

The summarized financial data above for the six month periods ended June 30, 2021 and 2020 are derived from unaudited financial information.
